Brief report of the event:

The NSS unit of Sophia College, with the help of Gamdevi Police station came forward to take charge of the Ganpati immersion duty to avoid traffic on the roads and prevent roadside accidents on the Ganesh Visarjan days, 20th, 23rd, 25th and 28th of September from 4:00pm to 8:00pm. Before commencing their duties in Ganpati crowd control, Volunteers gathered at Heros Hotel in Nana Chowk, where they were briefed and prepared for their respective duties by Gamdevi police officers. Their duties included maintaining order, ensuring safety, and assisting attendees at various spots near Nana chowk. On the last day of Visarjan the volunteers also received T-shirts and identity cards to enhance their visibility and effectiveness in managing the crowd. They worked closely with Gamdevi Police Station officers, ensuring orderly crowd control, safety enforcement, and timely reporting of incidents. These coordinated efforts, in collaboration with the Gamdevi Police Station, played a crucial role in ensuring the event's success and the safety of all participants.

Beneficiary's response:

Efforts by Sophia College's NSS team was appreciated by the Gamdevi police officers. Volunteers' presence and the seamless collaboration with Gamdevi Police Station contributed to a safe and enjoyable event experience. Volunteers are very punctual and are not hesitant to take extra work.
